16th Annual
Asian American Youth
Leadership Conference

"Know our story.
Create our vision."

Friday - May 9, 2008
8:00 AM to 4:00 PM

Portland Community College
Sylvania Campus

Background

The Asian American Youth Leadership Conference is committed to addressing the concerns and the needs of Asian students, and to help each student reach his/her fullest potential.

Our primary goal is to help students increase their understanding and appreciation of the heritage, culture and contributions of Asian Americans as well as foster the development of leadership skills within themselves.

At the Asian American Youth

Leadership Conference you will:

- Gain personal development and knowledge.
- Learn about your cultural and ethnic heritage.
- Meet new friends and network with others.
- Experience new ideas and possibilities.

Criteria for Selection

1. Diversity of the continent of Asia should be represented.
2. Good school records (attendance and grades).
3. Teacher or counselor recommendation.
4. Potential or interest in developing leadership skills.
